Numb. 13430.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 26, to Thursday June 28, 1792.

Whitehall, June 28.

THE following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Eſſex, has been preſented to the King by Thomas Berney Bramſton, Eſq; LL. D. and John Bullock, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Eſſex, moſt humbly entreat your Majeſty to accept our very ſincere and hearty Thanks for the Continuance of your Majeſty's affectionate Attention to the Proſperity and Happineſs of your People, moſt graciouſly manifeſted in your late Royal Proclamation for the Suppreſſion of ſeditious and wicked Publications, tending to alienate the Minds of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects from that admirable Form of Goverment eſtabliſhed by the Wiſdom of our Anceſtors at the Revolution. Deeply affected with a grateful Senſe of the many and eſſential Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Reign, and fully convinced that it is as much the Inclination as the Duty of all conſiderate and well-diſpoſed Perſons to counteract every Attempt to ſhake the Fabric of our moſt excellent Conſtitution, we beg Permiſſion to aſſure your Majeſty, that is ſhall be our earneſt and unremitted Endeavours to promote your Majeſty's wiſe and benevolent Intentions, and that nothing ſhall be wanting, on our Parts, to enforce a due Submiſſion to the Laws, on which the Security of the Perſon, the Property and the Liberty of every Individual muſt ultimately depend.

[Price Eight-pence.]

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Chief Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newport in the Iſle of Wight has been preſented to the King by the Rev. Dr. Worſley and Edward Ruſhworth, Eſq; Two of the Aldermen of the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Chief Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newport in the Iſle of Wight, in Common Hall aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our ſincere Thanks for the affectionate Regard you have ſhewn for your People by your late Proclamation. The Maintenance of Tranquillity and good Order is one of the chief Bleſſings of the Britiſh Conſtitution, and ſecures to us all the Happineſs we derive under it. To ſuppreſs every Attempt to diſturb that Tranquillity, or to ſubvert that good Order, is truly laudable.

Impreſſed, therefore, with the moſt lively Ideas of the Bleſſings we enjoy under our happy Conſtitution, we pledge ourſelves to uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to ſupport the Energy of the Laws, the Dignity of Magiſtracy, and to preſerve our excellent Conſtitution, in Church and State, from the Attempts of deſigning Men, who, ſcattering the Sparks of Sedition, diſſeminate ſuch baneful Principles and Doctrines as cannot but alarm your Majeſty's affectionate and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough, the 22d Day of June, 1792.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Chief Burgeſſes of the Borough of Yarmouth in the Iſle of Wight has been preſented to the King by Edward Ruſhworth, Eſq; Mayor of that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Chief Burgeſſes of the Borough of Yarmouth in the Iſle of Wight, in Common Hall aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our warmeſt Acknowledgments for your Majeſty's recent and additional Attention to the Happineſs of your Subjects, by iſſuing the late Proclamation for the Suppreſſion of all ſeditious Publications and the criminal Correſpondences of deſigning Emiſſaries, who, under the ſpecious Pretence of Reformation, would demoliſh a Conſtitution, ſo well poiſed and ſettled at the Glorious Revolution, as to be the Admiration of all Foreign Nations, and the beſt Security for the Enjoyment of every Felicity to this Country, and which ought to be the Pride of all loyal and grateful Subjects to maintain and defend.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough, this 23d Day of June, 1792.

E. Ruſhworth, Mayor.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Approved Men, High Steward, Repreſentatives in Parliament, Freemen and other Inhabitants of Guldeford, has been preſented to the King by the High Steward and Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Approved Men, High Steward, Repreſentatives in Parliament, Freemen and other Inhabitants of Guldeford, in the County of Surrey.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty to accept our grateful Thanks for your vigilant Attention to the Peace and Happineſs of your People in iſſuing your Royal Proclamation againſt the daring Attempts which have been made by dangerous Correſpondences Abroad, and ſeditious Publications induſtriouſly ſpread throughout your Kingdoms (which were received at this Place with Abhorrence) purpoſely to ſeduce the unwary againſt the Government and Conſtitution under which ſuch ineſtimable Benefits are quietly enjoyd.

The anxious Care which your Majeſty has evinced through the whole Courſe of your Reign, and particularly exerted on the preſent Occaſion, calls forth every Sentiment of Gratitude and Devotion to your ſacred Perſon, and to the glorious Conſtitution of our Country, and muſt inſure to both the Support of every honeſt Man in your Kingdom.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Town Corporate of Saffron Walden, has been preſented to the King by Lord Howard, Recorder of the ſaid Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Town of Saffron Walden in the County of Eſſex.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our grateful Thanks for the very recent Inſtance afforded us of your Majeſty's paternal Watchfulneſs and Concern for the Happineſs of your People. Thoroughly convinced as we are of the great Bleſſings we enjoy under our invaluable Conſtitution, and your Majeſty's Government, and of the great Importance of the various Meaſures pointed out in your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation for upholding the ſame, we moſt humbly entreat your Majeſty to be aſſured, that, to the utmoſt of our Powers, we will endeavour they may be effectuated; and that we will uſe all legal Means to ſuppreſs every ſeditious and wicked Attempt which may be made to alienate the Minds of all your Majeſty's Subjects from our preſent Religsous and Civil Polity, both which we earneſtly implore the Divine Providence may be long continued to us under your Majeſty's Reign, and deſcend unimpaired to our lateſt Poſterity, by your Succeſſors of the illuſtrious Aouſe of Hanover.

Given under our Common Seal, the 23d Day of June, 1792.

Whitehall, June 28.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Surrey.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, aſſembled at a General Meeting, purſuant to public Notice, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with our ſincereſt Acknowledgments for your gracious Proclamation, ſo expreſſive of that paternal Attention which your Majeſty has conſtantly ſhewn to the Peace and Happineſs of your Subjects, by obviating, in the mildeſt and moſt conſtitutional Manner, the pernicious Effects of thoſe factious and ſeditious Publications ſo induſtriouſly diſperſed in this Kingdom, ſubverſive of all Peace and good Order among Men, and tending to alienate the Affections of your Majeſty's Subjects from a Government under which we all live free and happy, and to overturn a Conſtitution which the Wiſdom of paſt Ages has formed and eſtabliſhed, and the Teſtimonies of the beſt and wiſeſt Men of the preſent, have ſanctioned and approved.

In Times ſo circumſtanced as the preſent we aſſure your Majeſty we will, in our reſpective Situations, exert our utmoſt Endeavours, by Vigilance and Activity, to detect and prevent the evil Conſequences of open Violence and ſecret Machinations, both Foreign and Domeſtick, that your Majeſty may long continue to reign the happy Sovereign of an affectionate, grateful, and free People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Northampton, beg Leave humbly to offer our ſincere and dutiful Acknowledgements for the recent Inſtance of your Majeſty's paternal Attention to the Welfare of your People, in the ſeaſonable and ſalutary Admonition contained in your Royal Proclamation.

Impreſſed with the firm and well-founded Perſuaſion that the genuine Intereſts of every Branch of the Legiſlature are intimately and inſeparably interwoven with thoſe of the People, we are anxious to confirm, as far as in us lies, the juſt Confidence expreſſed by both Houſes of Parliament, that the Sentiments conveyed in their late Addreſs to your Majeſty are the general Sentiments of the Nation.

Our Profeſſions of zealous Veneration for the firſt and eſſential Principles of our preſent Eſtabliſhment are not the inconſiderate Effuſions of a blind Enthuſiaſm, but the ſober and rational Reſult of a long and happy Experience.

Under a Government ſo modelled, and a Legiſlature ſo conſtituted, as to combine the general Security, Proſperity and real Freedom of every Claſs of our Fellow Subjects with the Maintenance of Civil Peace and Order, we truſt that no fallacious Proſpect of imaginary Advantages will ever ſeduce us to endanger the Permanency of the unexampled Bleſſings which, under the diſtinguiſhed Favour of Providence, we actually enjoy.

In the preſent Circumſtances we ſhall feel it our indiſpenſable Duty to counteract every Attempt to excite groundleſs Diſcontent and Diſquiet; and by our Conduct in our reſpective Stations to teſtify our Loyalty to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and our unſhaken Attachment to our excellent and happy Conſtitution.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Leiceſter, aſſembled at the Caſtle of Leiceſter, do, with the utmoſt Gratitude and Loyalty, return your Majeſty our moſt humble and hearty Thanks for your tender and affectionate Care for all your People, evinced by your Majeſty's late Royal Proclamation for ſuppreſſing wicked and ſeditious Publications.

Being ſenſible that the Happineſs of your People is your Majeſty's primary Object, and that, whilſt they are true to their own Intereſt it muſt from thence remain unſhaken and ſecure, we cannot help obſerving, with the utmoſt Abhorrence, the artful Means which have been uſed by evil-minded Men to propagate a Spirit of Diſcontent and Innovation among your faithful Subjects, by the Circulation of ſeditious Pamphlets and other Publications through this Kingdom.

Happy and proſperous under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, we think ourſelves bound, by the ſtrongeſt Ties of Duty and Affection, to diſcourage all Proceedings tending to produce Riots and Tumults; and, as we duly eſtimate the Value of thoſe Bleſſings, it is our firm Reſolution to ſupport the preſent Conſtitution of this Country, as the ſureſt and moſt effectual Mode of ſhewing our Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, Inhabitants of the City, Cloſe and Neighbourhood of New Sarum, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government.

The Proclamation lately iſſued for ſuppreſſing ſeditious and inflammatory Publications, we conſider as an additional Proof of your Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs, and we truſt will be productive of the moſt beneficial Effects. Warned of the Deſigns of factious Men, all Ranks of People will the more firmly unite to oppoſe them. The Two Houſes of Parliament have nobly ſet the Example, and the Zeal and Unanimity which they have diſplayed on this Occaſion, muſt effectually diſcourage all thoſe who are either weak or wicked enough to attempt the Subverſion of our glorious Conſtitution.

The great Body of the People complain of no Grievances; they are happy, and they feel that they are ſo. They behold, with Pride and Gratitude, a King ruling in the Affections of his Subjects, Commerce flouriſhing and univerſally extended, the Public Councils guided by Men eminent for their Virtues and diſtinguiſhed by their Abilities, and all Plans of ſound Policy invariably purſued, which have no other Object than the Public Good.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

MAY it pleaſe your Majeſty to accept the grateful Acknowledgements of your faithful Subjects the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of your ancient City of Chicheſter, for your Royal Proclamation to diſcourage the Attempts which have been lately made by miſguided Men, to weaken the Ties of Loyalty, and to depreciate thoſe invaluable Bleſſings which have been tranſmitted to us by the pious Care of our wiſe and brave Anceſtors. Impreſſed as we are with a due Senſe of your Majeſty's Royal Virtues, and of the many Advantages we enjoy under your mild Government, we ſhall, in our reſpective Stations, moſt ſtrenuouſly endeavour to promote that dutiful Submiſſion to Authority, which is the leading Characteriſtic of genuine Liberty, and the beſt Security of the National Happineſs. And it affords us the higheſt Satisfaction, that in doing this we ſhall but co-operate with the general Exertions of your Majeſty's loyal People, who are paying their ſeaſonable Tribute of Duty to the beſt of Kings, and expreſſing their zealous Attachment to that Conſtitution which is the Glory of Engliſhmen and the Admiration of the World.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid City to be hereunto affixed, the 22d Day of June, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

Robert Quennell, Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of your antient Borough of Doncaſter, in Common Council aſſembled, moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty to accept our grateful Thanks for the additional Inſtance you have given of your parental Care for the Happineſs and Proſperity of your People by iſſuing your late Royal Proclamation for ſuppreſſing thoſe ſeditious Publications and criminal Correſpondences, which may be productive of the moſt alarming and dangerous Conſequences.

We venerate the Conſtitution of this Kingdom as eſtabliſhed by the Glorious Revolution, and ſince improved improved as Occaſion required, becauſe it connects the Honour of the Sovereign with the Liberty of the Subject; and our Attachment is increaſed from the Conſideration that it contains the regular Means of advancing thoſe Objects with the Change of Time and Circumſtances.

The preſent Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms, far beyond any former Period, fully evinces the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Government; and thoſe who feel as they ought the Bleſſings which they now enjoy ſhould be ready to ſtem that Licentiouſneſs, which, we fear, is now prevalent in many Parts of this Country.

We therefore beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, in our reſpective Stations, endeavour to carry into Effect your Majeſty's moſt gracious Intentions, by inforcing Obedience to the Laws, and thereby ſecuring Tranquillity and Order, as the moſt likely Means to continue us a free and a happy People.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed our Common Seal to be hereunto ſet and affixed, the 11th Day of June, 1792.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Saltaſh, in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Saltaſh, beg Leave to return our moſt grateful Acknowledgments for the freſh Proof of your Majeſty's conſtant Solicitude for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, which you have ſo graciouſly ſhown by the Meaſures which your Majeſty hath thought proper to adopt, in order to counteract the Effects of the ſeditious Publications which have lately been diſperſed throughout the Kingdom.

We ſhould be unworthy the Name of Engliſhmen, and of the peculiar Bleſſings we enjoy, did we not hold it to be our indiſpenſable Duty to pay the ſtricteſt Obedience to your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation, and reſolve, with one Mind, to uſe our utmoſt Exertions to carry it into Effect. We ſee, with the utmoſt Abhorrence, the Attempts which have been made to weaken in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects every Sentiment of Obedience to the Laws, and of Attachment to the preſent Form of Government.

We are ſenſible of the unexampled Bleſſings which we now actually enjoy under our well-regulated Conſtitution, which ſo amply ſecures to us the Enjoyment of our Lives, our Properties, and our Civil and Religious Liberty; a Conſtitution unparalleled in Hiſtory, and which has become at once the Envy and Admiration of Mankind. May it be perpetual! May Divine Providence ſupport and protect it! And may your Majeſty long continue to enjoy the Affection and Gratitude of a free and loyal People.

Nic. Nepean, Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Aſſurances of our unfeigned Loyalty and Attachment to your ſacred Perſon, and our zealous Regard for the Preſervation of our moſt excellent Conſtitution.

Whilſt the greateſt Part of Europe is diſtracted with Civil Diſſentions, or labouring under the Calamities of War, we behold, with Pleaſure and heartfelt Gratitude, this Kingdom enjoying the Bleſſings of Peace, improving her Manufactures, extending her Commerce, and, by her increaſing Reſources, enabled to diminiſh the Burthen of the Public Taxes. Theſe ſuperior Advantages we gratefully aſcribe, under the Divine Providence, to your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, and to the Wiſdom and happy Influence of the Britiſh Conſtitution; we cannot then, without Horror and Indignation, obſerve the late inſidious Attempts of certain factious and evil-minded Perſons, to infuſe a Spirit of Diſcontent into the Nation, and, under the ſpecious Name of a Reform, to ſubvert the Foundations of a Government ſo wiſely conſtituted, and which ſo effectually maintains, at the ſame Time, the Dignity and Authority of the Sovereign, and the Liberty and Happineſs of the Subject: We do therefore moſt humbly thank your Majeſty for your late gracious Proclamation, tending to counteract ſuch evil Deſigns, and to prevent the unwary from being enſnared by ſpecious and falſe Pretences; and we hope, by a chearful and ready Obedience to our King, and the Laws of our Country, to prove ourſelves not unworthy of the Bleſſings which we enjoy.

May your Majeſty long continue to reign in the Hearts of a loyal and affectionate People, and may the Britiſh Conſtitution ever remain pure and uncorrupted, the Envy and Admiration of ſucceeding Ages.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of Bridgnorth, in the County of Salop.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of Bridgnorth, beg Leave, with the moſt unfeigned Reſpect and ſincere Affection, to declare how fully ſenſible we are of the great Bleſſings we enjoy under our wiſe and excellent Conſtitution, and under a Monarch who is the Nation's Friend. We deem it, Sire, the peculiar Duty of every good Citizen to diſcourage any Attempt, direct or indirect, againſt Public Peace and Tranquillity; and are happy in this Opportunity to teſtify our Loyalty, and our warm and grateful Acknowledgments for the late Proof of your Majeſty's Solicitude for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Loſtwithiel, in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

FULLY ſenſible of the Value and Excellence of our happy Conſtitution, and of your Majeſty's paternal Care for the Welfare and Happineſs of your Subjects, we eſteem it our Duty to teſtify our Attachment and Affection for your Royal Perſon, and to return our ſincere and cordial Acknowledgments for the recent Meaſures, which your Majeſty hath thought proper to adopt, in order to guard againſt and counteract the Effects of the late ſeditious Publications lications, induſtriouſly diſperſed in different Parts of this Kingdom.

Under theſe Impreſſions, we ſhould be wanting in Gratitude if we did not aſſure your Majeſty, that we hold it our indiſpenſible Duty to exert our utmoſt Endeavours to diſcountenance all Attempts tending to diſturb the Public Tranquillity, or to ſubvert that happy Conſtitution, which ſecures to your Majeſty's Subjects well-regulated Freedom, and is the Admiration of ſurrounding Nations.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Rotherham, moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty to accept our grateful Thanks for the parental Attention you have ſhewn to the Happineſs and Proſperity of the Kingdom by your late gracious Proclamation for the Suppreſſion of ſeditious Publications, the Intention of which are to diſſeminate Opinions of the moſt unconſtitutional and dangerous Tendency.

We venerate the Conſtitution of this Kingdom as eſtabliſhed at the Glorious Revolution, and ſince improved as Occaſion required, becauſe it connects the Honour of the Sovereign with the Liberty of the Subject; and our Attachment is increaſed from the Conſideration that it contains the regular Means of advancing thoſe Objects with the Change of Time and Circumſtances: And we ſincerely hope thoſe who feel and enjoy the preſent unexampled Proſperity of the Kingdom under your Majeſty's lenient and auſpicious Government cannot fail to concur in your moſt gracious Intentions. And we will, in our ſeveral Stations, endeavour to enforce Obedience to the Laws as the moſt likely Means of ſecuring Tranquillity and good Order, ſo eſſential to our Exiſtence as a free and happy People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Portſmouth.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Portſmouth, being deſirous on all Occaſions to teſtify our Duty and Attachment to your Majeſty, moſt humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere Thanks, for the freſh Mark which your Majeſty has been pleaſed to give us of your Attention and Affection to the People, and of your Deſire to promote and preſerve the Peace, good Order and Happineſs of the Kingdom, in having iſſued your Royal Proclamation for the diſcountenancing and ſuppreſſing of certain dangerous and ſeditious Writings and Publications, in the Proclamation particularly alluded to.

We lament that your Majeſty has ſeen Cauſe to apprehend that any Books, Papers or Doctrines, calculated to diſturb the Peace of your faithful and loyal Subjects, or tending to diminiſh their Zeal for the Support of the happy Conſtitution of this your Majeſty's Kingdom, have been or are intended to be circulated in any Part of it; but we can with the greateſt Satisfaction aſſure your Majeſty, that no inflammatory Publications or pernicious Doctrines have made their Appearance here, and that the numerous Inhabitants of this Borough are too well affected to your Majeſty and the Conſtitution of the Kingdom, and too ſenſible of the Happineſs they enjoy under your Majeſty's mild Government, to be ſhaken in their Loyalty by any Acts of wicked and deſigning Men,

Truly ſenſible of the many Rights, Liberties and Privileges wich we enjoy above other Nations, and which are ſecured to us by the Conſtitution and Laws of our Country, we beg to aſſure your Majeſty that we will, in our ſeveral and reſpective Stations, endeavour to protect and preſerve theſe ineſtimable Advantages, not only by the Means directed by your Majeſty's Proclamation, but by every other lawful Exertion in our Power.

Given at the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough, the 21ſt Day of June, 1792, under our Common Seal.

Thomas White, Mayor.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Free Burgeſſes and Principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Maldon, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, with Hearts full of Gratitude for your Majeſty's paternal Solicitude for the Proſperity and Happineſs of your People, recently repeated in your Royal Proclamation for ſuppreſſing all ſeditious Publications and criminal Correſpondences.

Warmly attached to your Majeſty, and feeling the many Bleſſings we enjoy under our preſent happy Conſtitution, it ſhall be our anxious Endeavour to preſerve it by enforcing a due Obedience to the Laws, and by firmly oppoſing thoſe artful and deſperate Men, few we truſt in Number or Conſequence, who by a deluſive Speculation would render inſecure the Lives and Properties of your Majeſty's loyal and faithful Subjects, and plunge this Kingdom into Anarchy and Confuſion.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Higham Ferrers, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, to teſtify our Attachment to your illuſtrious Family, and our firm Adherence to the Conſtitution, (as eſtabliſhed at the Revolution) for the Maintenance of which the Houſe of Brunſwick was called to the Throne of theſe Realms. Permit us to expreſs our warmeſt Zeal and Gratitude ty your Majeſty, for the paternal Attention you have always been pleaſed to manifeſt for the Preſervation and Permanence of that Conſtitution, and for the Maintenance of Peace and good Fellowſhip among your Subjects; and more particularly by iſſuing your late Proclamation for the Suppreſſion of wicked and ſeditious Publications. which we have ſeen of late with much Concern, and not without a conſiderable Degree of Alarm; Publications tending to inflame, by ill founded Inſinuations and unjuſt Repreſentations, the Minds of the People; to weaken their Attachment to, and render them diſcontented with, that happy Form of Government, which, with an unrivalled Degree of Perfection, ſecures to all the different Orders of it's Subjects the ineſtimable Bleſſing of equal Law, affording Protection to the Perſon, the Property, and the Induſtry of every Individual. Deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government, we are determined to exert every Means the Legiſlature hath put in our Power, to ſuppreſs all ſuch wicked and ſeditious Publications, or any other Attempts Attempts that may be made to diſturb the Tranquillity and good Order of theſe Kingdoms, and upon all Occaſions, endeavour to approve ourſelves your Majeſty's loyal and peaceable Subjects.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Selby in the County of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Selby, do moſt humbly beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our moſt grateful Thanks for the numerous Inſtances of your Attention and Attachment to our moſt happy Conſtitution, but eſpecially for your Majeſty's late moſt gracious Proclamation, for the Suppreſſion of ſeditious Meetings and Publications, a Meaſure truly founded in Wiſdom, and by it's preventive Conſequences will, we hope, prove itſelf founded alſo in Humanity.

Convinced as we are of the Excellency of the Conſtitution under which we live, that the Laws are ſufficient to protect our Perſons and Property, and finding our Manufactures, the Commerce and the Riches of the Nation, increaſe, we cannot help expreſſing our Averſion to every Attempt at Innovation or Subverſion of ſo much Happineſs.

That your Majeſty may long live to reign over your loyal, happy and proſperous People, we do moſt ſincerely pray.

Selby, June 8, 1792.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The moſt humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder and Freemen of your Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Kingſton upon Thames, in the County of Surrey.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder and Freemen of the very ancient and loyal Corporation of Kingſton upon Thames, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our ſincere and grateful Thanks for your late Royal Proclamation. We are too ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy not to be juſtly alarmed at any Attempt againſt our moſt excellent Conſtitution; and we humbly aſſure your Majeſty that we regard, with the utmoſt Abhorrence, all Publications which reflect on the Laws and Government of this Kingdom, Civil or Religious, and moſt cordially deteſt all wicked and ſeditious Practices whereby the Public Peace and Proſperity may be endangered: It is our earneſt Wiſh that all our Fellow Subjects may be equally impreſſed with a due Senſe of the Security afforded to their Rights and Liberties, and of the Happineſs they enjoy under your Majeſty's mild Government.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Guildhall of our ſaid Town, the 22d Day of June, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord, 1792.

Jemmett, Town Clerk.

Whitehall, June 28.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Chief Citizens of the antient and loyal City of Hereford, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Hereford, beg your Majeſty to accept our grateful Acknowledgments for the Care and Benevolence evinced by your Royal Proclamation to guard us againſt Impoſition and Error, and to obviate Diſcontent and Tumult.

We truſt Britons, under your Majeſty's auſpicious and enlightened Reign, are too happy to be blinded by Prejudice, or miſguided by fanciful and vain Speculations.

If Change of Circumſtances point out Improvement or Reform in the Conſtitution, already ſo excellent, the Means are veſted in the Legiſlative Bodies, when they in their Wiſdom ſee Occaſion to employ them.

Happy in the Tranquillity we enjoy within our Juriſdiction, we ſhall endeavour to preſerve it, and promote, to the utmoſt of our Power, the ſalutary Meaſures enjoined in yonr Majeſty's Royal Proclamation, truſting that the reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, equally ſenſible of the invaluable Bleſſings they enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, will unite in the firmeſt Support of your Majeſty's Endeavours to continue them.

Given under our Common Seal the 12th Day of June, 1792.

[Tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Norfolk.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Kinross.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Kinross, most humbly beseech your Majesty to accept our grateful Thanks for the Wisdom and paternal Benevolence evinced by your Royal Proclamation of the 21st Day of May last, for suppressing seditious Publications and criminal Correspondences, which may be productive of the most alarming and dangerous Consequences.

We your faithful Subjects, with humble Submission, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most inviolable Attachment to the Constitution as settled at the Glorious Revolution. We rest perfectly satisfied that it connects the Honor of the Sovereign with the Liberty and Happiness of the Subject, and contains the natural and regular Means of obtaining every beneficial Object which Change of Times and Improvement of Circumstances may point out.

Sensible as we are of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, it is with inexpressible Satisfaction we perceive similar Sentiments so generally prevail throughout the Nation; and we trust all your Majesty's Subjects will unite in the firmest Support of your Majesty's Endeavours to continue our present National Happiness and Prosperity, and to preserve our most excellent Constitution from the Dangers of speculative and impracticable Theory.
